5. Brief description of the subject and syllabus

5.1. Brief description of the subject

Theoretical sessions: teachers will present the main linguistic contents in English, which will result in a constant exercise of listening comprehension and note taking for the students.

Guided practical sessions: besides presenting the basic theoretical features, a varied range of activities will be carried out, both individually and in groups (class workgroups will be set up at the beginning of the semester). Some activities will be focused on listening comprehension exercises and oral tasks based on videos and audios related to oral communicative professional and business events, such as job interviews, oral presentations, videoconferencing meetings, discussions, etc.), as well as focused on topics of interest in the field of telecommunication. Additional exercises related to the correct pronunciation of difficult words, sound discrimination, word stress, etc., will also be done along the course with a special focus to avoid typical mistakes made by non-native Spanish speakers of English in oral communication.

Practical sessions (both with previous preparation and spontaneous): in-class debates on controversial ethical and professional issues. Note-taking exercises on listening activities and technical lectures in English (both live and recorded), practice of job interviews and oral presentations on topics of the telecommunication field, etc.

Attendance and active participation in academic seminars and lectures held at the ETSI de Telecomunicación: students will have to write summaries in English about those events.

Individual and group assignments: students will have to hand in different assignments along the semester, such as summaries from conferences, videorecording activities, presentations on powerpoint, written/oral dialogues and summaries from interviews or other communicative events.

Office hours: they will be organized according to the University regulations in force, and besides that, students will be able to contact their teachers via email. English is welcome as the main language to be used both in emails and during the office hours.

Through the listening and viewing comprehension activities of specialized topics in the field of telecommunication, students will get familiarized with content and terminology of the field.

7.1.3. Referred (re-sit) examination

No se ha definido la evaluación extraordinaria.

7.2. Assessment criteria

Continuous evaluation criteria.

The course will be assessed applying the following criteria:

- 1. Mandatory individual or group assignments in oral communication, class attendance and active participation (40%)
- Recorded job interviews 15%
- In-class oral presentations on topics in the field of telecommunication 15%
- Other oral communication in-class and/or recorded activities (10%)
- 2 Final exam consisting of a listening part and a written part regarding the theoretical and practical aspects of the course contents (60%)

A minimum 50% is required in written test and also in mandatory assignments to pass the course.

Class attendance is compulsory. A maximum of 3 justified absences are allowed.

Only those students who have attended the course on a regular basis and who have taken part in all the activities and handed in all the proposed assignments are entitled to be assessed through continuous evaluation. Those students opting for continuous assessment who do not fit the requirements (3 or more absences, not handing in compulsory assignments, etc.) will not be admitted to the continuous assessment exams and should opt for the final examination.

Criteria for the assessment through final examination

The course will be evaluated applying the following criteria:

Part 1: Final exam consisting of a listening part and a written part regarding the theoretical and practical aspects of the course contents (60%)

Part 2: Oral Practice with two subparts (40%)

- 1. A presentation of a topic related to the field of telecommunications from a list provided in advance, followed by a discussion with a set of questions to be answered (20%)
- 2. A discussion about students' academic background and their professional goals and perspectives. (20%)

A minimum 50% is required in each part (part 1 and part 2) to pass the course.

Students with this modality of evaluation will receive by email instructions regarding the oral test of part 2 before the official final exam (between weeks 10-11)

How to apply for final examination

Submitting a resignation form at the Students Office (Secretaría de alumnos) or via an e-mail addressed to the course coordinator expressly giving up continuous assessment during the first three weeks after the course begins.

Those students opting for continuous assessment who do not fit the requirements (3 or more absences, not handing in compulsory assignments, etc.) will not be admitted to the continuous assessment exams and should opt for the final examination.
